CONSENT TO USE A CHILD'S SCHOOL WORK/VISUAL IMAGE – CONTEXT INFORMATION

The International Baccalaureate organization (IB) is committed to improving and promoting its educational programmes and the teaching and learning that take place in its authorized schools. It runs teacher-training workshops and publishes promotional materials such as the magazine IB World. It also publishes training materials, both in printed form and on CD-Rom, for schools and for sale, and on its password-protected web site for teachers. These training materials are greatly improved if samples of student work are shown. The IBO would much appreciate your permission for the future possible use of samples of your child's work or of images of him/her engaged in class work or school activities, should the school select them for submission.
